

« Paris in 3 Courses – The 2 Islands »

Enjoy a savoury experience in the heart of Paris. Discover the origins and the originality of Paris while strolling in and around its two historic islands surrounded by the river Seine. You'll hear surprising stories and anecdotes about the city from times past to present day, all while strolling from one course to the next as you stop in 3 restaurants to make up a memorable meal. A delicious opportunity to capture the essence of Paris!

Stroll across bridges and over islands. Admire emblematic monuments as you walk through tiny streets on your way to discover the city's origins, past secrets and present day truths. Among the lights and the romantic images of Paris you'll find yourself immersed in the beating heart of this vibrant city.

Savour the City while strolling from one course to the next and discover 3 different restaurants where 3 chefs will tickle your taste buds with their delicious dishes!

Perhaps you'll visit one of Paris' oldest houses, dating from 1512, where George and Odette prepare specialities with products from their organic farm in the Aveyron region— giving Odette a reputation as a Wild Woman who makes Wild Food.

On the next stop you might meet the dynamic team of Yohann and David who share their experience— from the likes of Hotel International and Guy Savoy—as they create traditional, yet inventive cuisine with seasonal products, all set between stone walls, wooden beams and paintings by young artists. Throughout this “curious” stroll you'll enjoy a savoury experience in the heart of Paris...

A truly moveable feast!
