

Guided Tour: Walking-Lunch Leuven Leivese Lunsj-promenaad

No time for a three-course menu or a full evening program, but still interested in an exciting walk and lunch? Then we can offer you our walking lunch! We take the main course in a fine Leuven restaurant after a first walk. Afterwards we stroll on from one sweet or sour tasting to another. A tasting of the finest Belgian chocolates will not be missed. We complete the tour with a coffee or tea. You will hear fun facts and juicy stories in and about Leuven and the tastings.

This tour can be organised every day with departure between 11.00 and 13.00 hours during weekdays and weekends. It can be organised as a separate tour or in combination with other activities. We will be glad to make you a tailored program.

Starting point: Square Ladeuze (at the artwork 'Totem' of Jan Fabre). A different starting point can be considered. The square Ladeuze is a 10 minutes walk away from the train station of Leuven. There is a car park underneath the Square Ladeuze (www.mappy.be).

Duration: 3 hours. We request customers to be present at the starting point 10 minutes before departure. If we start later, we might be forced to adjust the planned program.

Price: € 45 per person.

Included: guide, main course with drink, 2 tastings, coffee or tea & 21% VAT.

When the group exceeds 25 participants, it can be divided in subsets. Each subset will walk with its own guide. The different groups can meet at the last tasting. When the group is less than 12 persons, we ask a compensation of 15 euro per person less than 12.

The walk can be guided in Dutch, French and English.
